“ I am so sorry to hear of Anna Marie's passing. She was always so cheerful and kind to us when we visited your house on our way back to Bethlehem. She was a fine lady. May you all find comfort knowing she is at peace.

“ Growing up in the 70's we would go to Nana and Dado's (they are AnnaMarie's mom & dad) alot, especially on the Holidays. The adults would always play cards and send the kids in the other room to play. I will always remember the laughter, the loud, playful, fun, always true laughter. LOUD...always LOUD but I wouldn't change those memories for anything in the world. AnnaMarie, my dad, Stevie & Nana were always the loud ones. Dado & Joey were the quiet ones. Spending weekends there when Suzanne & Billy were also there was triple the fun. We used to hide on Nana and she would get so mad at us. She always, always had milk and cookies for us to eat, and you had to, absolutely had to drink the whole glass of milk before you could leave the table. I guess that's why I don't really drink much as an adult. Memories of AnnaMarie are something I will always cherish. Now her, my dad, Nana, Dado, Joey & Gene are all laughing together again. I feel comfort knowing g they are all together.
