“ Al and I miss Margie a Great deal. She was the best neighbor that anyone could ever want. She was always a very cheerful person to be with and to talk to. Always love going over for coffee and cake. Or just to talk to her. Margie was always a pleasure to be with. And it was a pleasure meeting some of her family.

Love and Miss you Margie!

“ My Aunt Margie was the most Christ-like person I ever met. Everything you would ever want an aunt to be, she always was and more Loving with her words and her deeds. Kind. Supportive. Generous. Thoughtful. Never angry, bitter, critical, selfish, mean or nasty. She was always happy to see you and spend time with you. Everyone who met her instantly fell in love with her. Witnessing how she lived her life, I believe the secrets to long life are these: First, she had a strong faith. She would pray rather than worry. Second, she LOVED her family. Third, she was positive and happy. Fourth, she knew how to forgive. She never let her mind or body get tensed up by anger. She was always careful with money, and she had everything she need or wanted. She worked hard, and everyone knew her as woman with integrity. She was good and faithful servant of the Lord, and I'm sure He is well pleased with how she lived her life, and I picture Him giving her a big hug as she entered Heaven.

Love and miss you, Aunt Margie!
